

Center

Once, and for two thousand years the earth was immovable. It lived at the center of the universe, and all the heavenly bodies revolved around it. This was at the time a truth we all shared. An unquestionable belief, masquerading as a fact of life.

Then, one heretic had the courage to offer us a different truth. Instead of stationary, he put the earth in motion. He made it revolve around the sun, and thus moved all of us from our long held geocentric model to a revolutionary heliocentric one.

This is the process of awakening. We realize the fallacy of our current model, and another model, more whole and more complete gives us access to what previously was concealed.

Our current model, not geocentric, but egocentric, defines us as a person in the center of all experiences. We are the hero of our own journey, a character of sorts that goes through this journey called life.

And now I have to be the heretic. Now I have to offer you another model. One that will put into question the person centric model that you don't even know you have.

And it goes like this :

You are not a person having a life

But rather

You are life.

And at this moment you are having a person.
